

TALIA CARNER

Formerly the publisher of Savvy Woman magazine and a consultant to Fortune 500 companies, Talia Carner's heart-wrenching suspense novels, (published by HarperCollins) THE THIRD DAUGHTER, HOTEL MOSCOW, JERUSALEM MAIDEN, CHINA DOLL and PUPPET CHILD, have been hailed for exposing society's ills. Her historical novel THE BOY WITH THE STAR TATTOO was released by HarperCollins on January 30th, 2024.

Dozens of Carner's award-winning essays, articles and short stories have appeared in anthologies, literary reviews and leading websites. She is a committed supporter of global human rights and has spearheaded projects centered on the subjects of female plight. A Toastmasters' Gold Level speaker, she has participated as a panelist or keynoted over 550 events and over 350 Zoom presentations to civic, religious and cultural organizations. Talia Carner is a board member of HBI, the Jewish women research center at Brandeis University and an honorary board member of several anti-domestic violence, child abuse intervention, and anti-sex-trafficking organizations. In November 2023, Algemeiner Media named Talia Carner as one of the Top 100 People positively Influencing Jewish Life 2023.

She lives in Boca Raton, FL, and Bridgehampton, NY. She is married to Ron Carner, (former president of Maccabi USA) and they have four grown children. Her addictions include chocolate and social justice.
